March 7th, 1917.

Dearest Frances:-

Just received your postal card & it sure was welcome; So far since Monday, I received a letter every day. That's the way I wanted it to be done.

So it was snowing eh? Well, we had snow one day, & the next day, we didn't have a sign of it. It's beautiful out, to-day, only _____ well, the same thing, I want you.

I'm trying my best to build up ~~the~~ my practice so that we can be to-gether in May. Honey, I'm afraid if I don't, (that is, to my satisfaction) we'll get married anyhow.

Well, let me know how everything's getting along, & how my little sweetheart is passing her time.

With all my love to my honey,

Lovingly,

JMF
